

Just-So Winter Dressage Series The Arrow Riding Centre, Darenth, Kent 31st January 2010

Well the Winter Series got off to a disappointing start with the 'white stuff' forcing us to cancel our first show of the year on the 17th January, however the 31st January brought a very chilly but sunny day and a good turnout.

Prelim 13, was judged by Sally Deane who was very impressed with class winner Pippa Jenman riding Swiftbrook Billy who scored a very commendable 72.5% and 15 marks ahead of 2nd place winner Kelly Scott riding Blue Moon Eclipse

Prelim 14, was judged by NWK Pony Club Commissioner Martin Wright who commented on the high standard of the class. Pippa Jenman and Swiftbrook Billy stood out from the crowd again and took their second 1st place of the day, this time with 76.7% - 14 marks ahead of 2nd place winner Amanda Swan riding Easy Money. It was a very competitive class with only 5 marks and collectives separating 3rd - 6th places!

Last class of the day was Novice 20 and although a much smaller class, the standard was still very high with Judge Lynne Southwood commenting on the quality of the entries. The eventual winner with 71.2% was Sarah Hetherington riding Jigsaw, who had also taken 3rd place in Prelim 14. Just-So competition regular Sue Kennet took second place with her 'veteran' Taman Kaestindo and another Winter Series regular Viv Howie was placed 3rd.

Full results of all classes are available at www.just-soequestrianevents.dacel.co.uk as are schedules for forthcoming shows including a Dressage to Music Show on the 11th April - a change to practice your dressage to music programme before the dressage to music class at the Sunshine Tour Championships in September maybe??
